

featuring newly commissioned works by Matthew Hindson & Katy Abbott funded by the Australia Council

Matthew Hindson

Katy Abbott

presented by

www.orchestraaustralia.org.au

www.sibelius.com.au

www.inthechair.com

...working together

national orchestra forum

players composers conductors teachers

Be part of Orchestra Australia's...

THE BIG PLAY

melbourne

19-20 august 2006

Join in this inaugural event to develop your skills and have fun...

Through participating or observing in various forum activities you will experience:

growth as a musician • learning and hearing new Australian repertoire massed orchestra workshop at the "The Big Play" • connecting with other musicians

Thanks to the latest in music simulation technology provided by In the Chair and Sibelius, you can attend some of the activities without having to physically be on location in Melbourne! Be an on-line delegate via broadband internet.

The Big Play

Featuring a new work by Melbourne composer Katy Abbott, this activity is for all musicians. Just bring your instrument and join the massed orchestra to workshop a piece with the composer and guest conductors. Rehearse beforehand using In the Chair software or hardcopy of your part. This activity is available for on-line delegates.

Explore the technology

Get hands on with the latest music simulation and education technology by In the Chair and Sibelius.

When: 19-20 August 2006

Where: The Camberwell Centre, Melbourne

Register for this event via the web or contact Orchestras Australia on (02) 9241 2018 or info@toan.com.au

Composer_Connecting_Community Concert

Be the first to hear the World Premiere of works commissioned by Orchestras Australia that will be presented by the composers; Katy Abbott and Matthew Hindson. The concert also includes a state premiere of Graham Howard's flute concerto "The Nude" and the presentation of the 2006 National Orchestral Awards. This activity is available for on-line delegates.

Masterclasses

Participate or observe professional musicians share their skills and experience with you.

Touring Orchestras Concert

Listen to fabulous orchestral repertoire played by youth orchestras and featuring talented young concerto competition winners.

www.orchestrasaustralia.org.au

